

Graebeck Construction Ltd a leader in the construction industry in Ottawa. We are currently looking for an individual to join our Dynamic Team of highly experienced, honest professionals as SITE SUPERINTENDENT.

ABOUT GRAEBECK

We are a leader in commercial general contracting, estimating lump sum tenders, construction management and preconstruction budgeting. We specialize in hospitals, government & institutional buildings, schools, universities, historic restorations. New construction and renovation.

Graebeck Mission Statement

“Your industry leader providing construction solutions while building a legacy of excellence”

Graebeck Core Values

Trust, Integrity, Fun, Balance, Communication, Teamwork, Success, Growth, Education

If You're the superintendent we are looking for, you will be

Someone who loves to be part of a team, self motivated, attentive to details, orderly and efficient, successful, enjoy working under pressure, highly skilled communicator, have proven construction background and experience. Hospital renovation experience would be an asset

The Mission of this role will be

- Oversee the construction process
- Responsible for overall site safety as well as construction activities within the established design, budget and scheduling guidelines.
- Ability to multitask /work on multiple projects of various types/sizes.
- Technology savvy, experience with Autodesk Build, Microsoft Project would be an asset.
- Exceptional communication skills
- Ability to foresee potential issues/problems/interferences and assist in resolutions

You will also be working with the dedicated team at Graebeck Construction on productivity and innovations to improve the company's efficiency to continue to make it the number one construction company to work with.

Compensation will be determined based on experience, will include vacation, benefits, pension, education, and profit sharing.

Reply to careers@graebek.com