Dear Longlong:

Re: 2025 Fall Term

It is my pleasure to inform you that you have been placed on the Dean's Honours List for outstanding academic achievement during the last term. The Dean's Honours List recognizes students who have demonstrated academic excellence by maintaining a grade point average of at least 3.60.

Your professors, Chairs, and I congratulate you on this excellent achievement. The persistence and hard work you have demonstrated will be valued by your future employers.

In offering you our sincere congratulations and best wishes, we encourage you to maintain the high standards you have set for yourself in learning or pursuing your career.

Yours sincerely,

To Whom It May Concern,

I am pleased to write this letter of reference for Longlong Ma, a dedicated and hardworking student currently enrolled in the Building Construction Technician program at Algonquin College. I had the opportunity to teach Longlong in a Communications course, where he consistently demonstrated a strong commitment to his studies and personal growth.

Longlong is a kind, respectful, and highly responsible student. He approaches his work with diligence and integrity, consistently submitting high-quality work on time. He is punctual, well-prepared, and demonstrates a level of maturity that sets him apart from many of his peers. His commitment to improving his communication skills is especially impressive; he actively seeks opportunities to learn by asking questions and pursuing additional resources.

Longlong works very well with others. He is cooperative, engaged, and contributes meaningfully to group work and class discussions. He was well liked by his peers and brought a positive, supportive presence to the classroom.

Overall, Longlong is a motivated, dependable, and engaged student who is fully committed to succeeding in his field. I recommend him without hesitation for future employment.

Please feel free to contact me if you require additional information.

Sincerely,

Leanne Johnny
